If you need the passport within the next four weeks, you should schedule an appointment at the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate. Passports are valid for 10 years, so any child receiving one at 16 would be an adult when it's time to renew it.How to Renew a Passport from Outside the U.S. U.S. citizens living or working abroad can renew their passports overseas by visiting the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate in the region. Do not fold any of the documents submitted by the applicant, including verifying, with the issuing authority, the documentary evidence of citizenship;(e) requesting and collecting, and capturing by electronic means, further information, material and declarations pursuant to section 8;(f) verifying that any documentary evidence of citizenship that is submitted with a passport application is valid and regular on its face, and returning the originals of documentary evidence of citizenship to applicants;(g) collecting and cancelling any valid or expired passports;(h) collecting the applicable passport and consular fees and issuing a receipt to applicants;(i) forwarding, including by electronic means, passport applications and all accompanying materials and declarations collected or created in relation to passport applications to the Minister, including original documents;(j) processing passport applications;(k) withholding and recovering a passport that was issued to an applicant;(l) producing passports; and(m) delivering passports to applicants whose passport applications are complete or to their authorized delegates.(2) The Minister may specify the circumstances in which the Minister of Employment and Social Development may or may not exercise a function referred to in subsection (1).SI/2008-57, s. 4SI/2019-27, s. Passport photos must be clear, undamaged and printed on photo quality paper. 8 SI/2013-57, s. Support to Minister of Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness1.4 (1) If the Minister of Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness makes a decision under this Order, he or she shall inform the Minister of that decision and the Minister shall take the actions necessary to give effect to the decision.(2) The Minister shall support the Minister of Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness in carrying out his or her responsibilities under this Order. To use this service, you have to enter personal information, including your name and the last four digits of your Social Security number.How to Renew a Passport for a Child It's not possible to renew a passport for a child. 1 2013, c. You may be able to provide a statement explaining the circumstances in respect of the missing passport together with such affidavits or statutory declarations as are necessary to establish that the passport is missing and the reasons therefor.9 (1) Where a female applicant married an alien prior to January 1, 1947, additional information may be required to establish (1). If you still meet all the qualifying criteria, you can renew your passport if it was issued within the last 15 years and you were at least 16 years old at issuance.Passport Book vs. Renewing a passport is simpler than applying for a new one.Due to the impacts of COVID-19, we made changes to the renewal process. In fact, an airline can't let you board an international flight if you don't have a valid passport. 6 SI/2015-33, s. If you have legally changed your name since your original passport was issued, you have to send a copy of a marriage certificate, divorce order or court decree that officially changed your name. 3 SI/2013-57, ss. 3SI/2001-121, s. 2 SI/2010-32, s. 2 SI/2008-146, s. Passport Card United States citizens can choose between a passport book and a passport card, depending on their travel destination. 2 SI/2018-31, s. 11.3 (1) If a passport has been cancelled under section 11.1, the following persons may, within 30 days after the day on which they become aware of the cancellation, apply in writing to the Minister or the Minister of Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness, as the case may be, to have the cancellation reconsidered:(a) in the case of a passport issued to a child under 16 years of age, a person referred to in any of paragraphs 7(1)(a) to (c) if the child is under 16 years of age when the application for reconsideration is made; and(b) the person to whom the passport was issued.(2) The Minister or the Minister of Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness, as the case may be, shall give the person a reasonable opportunity to make representations.(3) On receipt of the representations, the Minister or the Minister of Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness, as the case may be, shall decide if there are still reasonable grounds to cancel the passport.(4) The Minister or the Minister of Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness, as the case may be, shall give notice to the person without delay of the decision made in respect of the application.SI/2015-33, s. You can mail the DS-82 and support documentation directly to the United States for processing a passport book or a passport card.You need to submit a few documents to renew your passport. 3 SI/2006-95, s. 11(E). 12(F) 7.1 Despite subsections 7(2) to (4) and without any application having been made by an applicant referred to in any of paragraphs 7(1)(a) to (c) for the issuance of a passport to a child under 16 years of age, the Minister may issue a passport to a such a child if he or she has reasonable grounds to believe that it is in the child's best interest, 4 10.2 (1) If the Minister refuses to issue or revokes a passport, on any grounds other than the one set out in paragraph 9(1)(g), he or she may refuse on those same grounds to deliver passport services for a maximum period of 10 years. (2) If the Minister of Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness decides on any of the grounds set out in section 10.1 that a passport is not to be issued or is to be revoked, he or she may decide on those same grounds that passport services are not to be delivered for a maximum period of 10 years.SI/2009-56, s. Renewal rules state you had to be at least 16 years old when you received your passport. 641, and to make the annexed Order respecting Canadian passports in substitution thereof.1 The Minister is responsible for the administration of this Order. 3 10 (1) Without limiting the generality of subsections 4(3) and (4) and for the greater certainty, the Minister may revoke a passport on the same grounds on which he or she may refuse to issue a passport.(2) In addition, the Minister may revoke the passport of a person who(a) being outside Canada, stands charged in a foreign country or state with the commission of any offence that would constitute an indictable offence if committed in Canada;(b) the Minister has reasonable grounds to believe uses the passport in committing an indictable offence in Canada or any offence in a foreign country or state that would constitute an indictable offence if committed in Canada;(c) the Minister has reasonable grounds to believe permits another person to use the passport;(d) has obtained the passport by means of false or misleading information; or(e) has ceased to be a Canadian citizen.SI/2001-121, s. This form is also available at passport acceptance facilities. 3 10.1 Without limiting the generality of subsections 4(3) and (4) and for greater certainty, the Minister of Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness may decide that a passport is not to be issued or is to be revoked if he or she has reasonable grounds to believe that the decision is necessary to prevent the commission of a terrorism offence, as defined in section 2 of the Criminal Code, or for the national security of Canada or a foreign country or state.SI/2004-113, s. 2 SI/2013-57, s. 2 SI/2012-37, s. 4 10.3 (1) The Minister may, under section 10, revoke a passport that has been cancelled under subsection 11.1(1) or paragraph 11.2(b) or (c).(2) The Minister of Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness may, under section 10.1, decide that a passport that has been cancelled under subsection 11.1(2) is to be revoked.SI/2009-56, s. 9 Date modified: 2022-01-20 You can find this form at the U.S. Department of State's website. 10 7 (1) Subject to subsections (2) to (4), when an applicant applies for a passport in respect of a child under 16 years of age, that child may be issued a passport if the applicant is(a) the parent of the child;(b) the custodial parent, if the parents of the child are divorced or separated; or(c) the legal guardian of the child.(2) No passport shall be issued to a child under 16 years of age where the parents of the child are divorced or separated and there is a court order made by a court of competent jurisdiction in Canada or a separation agreement the terms of which grant the non-custodial parent specific rights of access to the child, unless the application for the passport is accompanied by evidence that the issue of a passport to the child is not contrary to the terms of the court order or separation agreement.(3) No passport shall be issued to a child under 16 years of age where there is a court order made by a court of competent jurisdiction in Canada in respect of the child the terms of which restrict the movement of that child to a judicial district specified in the order, unless the court order is revoked or is varied to permit the child to travel outside Canada.(4) No passport shall be issued to a child under 16 years of age unless the applicant who applies for the issue of a passport to the child provides to the Minister the information and material required in the application for the passport and, if applicable, the further information referred to in section 8.SI/2001-121, s. 1 SI/2012-37, s. 3 2.1 For the purposes of this Order, an offence that may be prosecuted either summarily or by way of indictment is deemed to be an indictable offence, even if it has been prosecuted summarily. 1 SI/2008-57, s.
